Deposit Interest Retention Tax (DIRT) is deducted at source at the standard rate of tax (20%) from interest paid on deposits held by Banks, Building Societies, Credit Unions or the Post Office Savings Bank.

You can claim an exemption from the deduction of DIRT if,

- You or your spouse are aged 65 or over during the year, and
- Your total income (this is essentially your gross income from all sources, e.g. old age pension, deposit interest etc.) for the year 2007 does not exceed the following amounts:

Single or Widowed €19,000

Married Couple (Combined Income) €38,000

These exemption limits are increased by €575 for each of the first two dependent children and by €830 for each subsequent dependent child. These amounts are liable to change and changes will be posted on our website www.revenue.ie and on Aertel page 451 (RTE2).

If you qualify under these criteria, you can apply to have deposit interest, on funds of which you are the beneficial owner, paid to you without deduction of DIRT.

Joint accounts only qualify for the exemption where the two account holders are husband and wife.

If a third party (e.g. a relative) has authority to operate your bank account on your behalf you will still be entitled to the DIRT exemption, provided the beneficial ownership of your account is not affected.

To apply simply complete the form overleaf and return it to your Bank/Building Society/Credit Union/Post Office savings bank manager who will arrange for future interest to be credited to your account without deduction of DIRT.

If your circumstances change and you no longer qualify to have your interest paid without deduction of DIRT, you are obliged to notify the local manager of your Bank/Building Society/Credit Union/Post office savings bank.
